

Mr. President says...

March hasn't been all clowning around. We did ourselves proud at the Souper Sunday. My count may be wrong, but I think there was 13 of us there. April is full of volunteer opportunities and I hope you volunteer when you can. I want to thank Jill for handling the meeting in March, I was away to Houston with two children at the Shrine Hospital.

Have a Happy Easter!

Felix

I would like to thank all of you for your efforts to increase our membership (and fun). Continue spreading the good word about SACS to everyone you meet.

Souper Sunday by Valerie Jackson, Event Coordinator

Souper Sunday was held March 8 at 3:00 pm. The 15 SACS volunteers got an extra treat-seeing the renovations of the historic Rose Bowl. From the pink terra cotta exterior to the high, domed ceilings and the retro pink and silver metal chairs, we got to take a good look around at the part of the renovations that have been completed before the Silent Auction began.

Souper Sunday is a fundraiser for TSHA-Total Source for Hearing-loss and Access (formerly Tulsa Speech and Hearing Association) and Diana Higgins is the agency representative. She is always so kind and expresses her thanks to us and tells us they 'couldn't put this event on without SACS'. The theme of this year's event was the 40th anniversary of TSHA, so the event and staff were done up in vintage black and pink and white. There were many restaurants represented with their soup and bread and desserts.

As usual, this event had lots of fun items that were reasonably priced, many people in attendance, and we continue to be grateful we no longer have to provide the 'Human Wall' to protect the auction items. We watched the auction tables, closed each set of tables, took the bid sheets to be filed and waited for each item to be picked up. All went well. A big round of applause to Mary B, Roy B, Ann B, Terry B, Felix F, Jackie G, Danny J, Jill K, Sara M, Gail M, Cindy P, Janelle W, and especially to Steve K & Gayle P who stood in for me when I had to leave a little early. Volunteer hours for this event: 58

YOUR INPUT IS NEEDED!
