

Mr. President says...

April showers bring May flowers and many opportunities to volunteer. The CAN festival was taken care of by other volunteers. Thanks to you SACS members for your patience. I know it is exasperating to volunteer for an event, and then just twiddle your thumbs because they overbooked people. Please know that by just being there the coordinators are aware their events would not be as successful without us!

Testing Assistants for Tulsa Public Schools Contact: Judy Hudgens 744-1096 or 645-8466

TPS is looking for as many as 130 volunteers to assist with year-end testing at Booker T. Washington high school. Testing will be performed April 21st through May 20th. 250 tests need to be administered; volunteers do not need to be familiar with or knowledgeable about the tests themselves. Instead, the volunteers are needed primary as "warm bodies" to keep an eye on the procedures, hand out Kleenex, mints, etc. Depending on the particular type of test being administered (there are three categories of tests), shifts will run from 8am-10am, 8am-12noon, 12noon-4pm and 12:45pm-2:30pm.

Membership Update by Patty Snyder, Membership Director

This month, we gained one new member, which brings us to 52 active members. Welcome Sherry Birchem! We had two guest speakers, Jane Dunbar representing Habitat for Humanity, Dream Builder's Gala and Joy Longmire from Foundation for Tulsa Schools' Designer's Showcase annual event. Thank you for joining us! Total attendance was 28. I would like to thank all of you for your efforts to increase our membership (and fun). Continue spreading the good word about SACS to everyone you meet.
