

Spotlight on an Upcoming Event-

Event: Hangar Dance – Celebrate Freedom

Date: Saturday, Nov. 7th

Location: Tulsa Technology Center– 801 E. 91st Street Tulsa.

SACS Coordinator: Steve Kern 629-3571

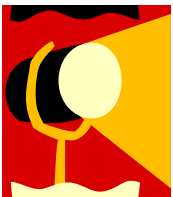

An all day events, so daytime or nighttime shifts are available to volunteer.

The 8th Annual Hangar Dance honors our veterans and benefiting the work of the Commemorative Air Force (CAF) and their work with youth and restoration of vintage aircraft!

Our volunteer opportunities include helping serve lunch & dinner, concessions afternoon & evening, tickets, PX, table decorating and silent auction. All volunteers can attend the Hanger Dance and separate volunteer's tables will be provided. They will be giving an East Coast Swing lesson at 6 pm to 7 pm, prior to the beginning of the dance. Dress is casual, military, or 40's styles.

There are vintage planes, vintage military vehicles, vintage exhibits, silent auctions, food, fun and more all in the a huge hanger at TCC Riverside Campus. The flag behind the Sounds of Music is one the largest you will ever see. The overall experience is amazing. The weather was unusually warm last year, so they opened the huge hanger doors to showcase a starlit sky as a backdrop. WOW was it impressive! This is one of the largest dance events in this area of the country. .

Spotlight on an Upcoming Event-

Event: Champagne & Chocolate Gala and Holiday Art Sale

Date: Saturday, November 21st

Location: Living ArtSpace, 307 E. Brady, Downtown Tulsa.

SACS Coordinator : Claudette Rogers 906-2822

Volunteer shifts are 4:30 to 8:30, and 8 to 11.

Living Arts of Tulsa, presents the "2009 Champagne & Chocolate Gala and Holiday Art Sale from 6:00 to 10:00 PM. It will feature the works of 100 of the best artists from Oklahoma and beyond. These works of art have been priced to fit into your holiday budget so that you can give the gift of beauty to someone special or maybe simply as a gift to yourself!

The annual Champagne & Chocolate event has always been a glamorous highlight of the Tulsa holiday calendar. Party goers enjoy champagne and exquisite chocolates in addition to wonderful hors d'oeuvres which have been provided by fine local vendors and chocolatiers. The 2009 event will also feature Nicole Moan's models wearing her elegantly designed corsets. Some special attendees will even be given the opportunity to model the corsets.

The check in of the auction items is Sat, Nov 14th & Sun, 15th from 1-4pm. We are going to have a training class on Sat, 14th and Sun 15th from noon to 1pm. This is to help in the process of check in art from artists (prior to the event) and selling transactions on the night of the event. Auctions close at 8 and 9 pm.

Membership Report: We had one guest, Nathan Clark attend. Welcome! New flyers have been printed that can be posted at work or churches to advertise SACS. Pick some up and spread the word! Anna has been in contact with members with outstanding dues. Steve Kern reported the bank account is $2,000. The 50/50 drawing was won by Pat Hein. A MET Blanket was won by Mike Reeves and MET water bottle was won by Shirley Crane.

Pumpkin Soup with Cloves and Honey

-Bon Appetit Magazine

- 2 tablespoon (1/4 stick) butter
- 2 large carrots, chopped
- 2 celery stalks, chopped
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1 2-pound pumpkin peeled, seeded, chopped (about 6 cups)
- 6 cups (or more) chicken stock or canned low-salt broth
- 5 whole cloves
- 1/2 cup whipping cream
- 2 tablespoons honey

Preparation: Melt butter in Dutch oven over medium-high heat. Add carrots, celery and onion; sauté until tender, about 8 minutes. Add pumpkin, 6 cups stock and cloves. Cover and simmer until pumpkin is very tender, about 25 minutes.

Discard cloves. Purée soup in batches in blender. Return to Dutch oven. Stir in cream and honey. Bring to simmer. Season to taste with salt and pepper. (Can be made 1 day ahead. Chill. Bring to simmer before serving, thinning with more stock, if desired.)

Swirl a little cream decoratively into each bowl of soup for an elegant presentation. Serves 8.

Evening of Wine and Roses Event by Karen Bouteller, SACS Coordinator

It was a beautiful night, the smell of flowers was in the air, and the lights in the trees were magical -- just another elegant (and tasty) Evening of Wine and Roses at the Tulsa Garden Center. SACS was well-represented by (in alphabetical order) Roy B., Karen B., Phyllis F., Felix F., Claudia F., Connie H., Ken H., Barbara H., Jill K., Steve K., Linda K., Pat P., Gayle P., Mike R., Ruth R., Claudette R, Jack S., and Janelle W.

No one was left thirsty as we tasted sweet white wine, dry white wine, sweet red wine, dry red wine, sparkling sake, champagne, and something called Lavender Orchid punch from TWS catering that was to die for!! Then, we sampled salmon from Charleston's, chicken from the Bistro at Seville, lobster pasta from McGill's, lettuce wraps from P.F. Chang's -- I could go on and on.

Then there was dessert. Ludger's cheesecake cake (described by Roy as the best dessert ever), the chocolate fountain with pineapple pieces (which I was forced to go by 3 times) and brownies (caramel brownies, chocolate covered brownies, pecan brownies, brownie brownies,) were just a few we "had to try". Oh, and we did some work, too. About half of the group was responsible for "Garden Tasting Check-In" and others distributed supplies, utensils and napkins to the participating vendors. We had a great time, wish you were there, let's do it again next year!!!

As you may have guessed, this is totally my favorite event of the year and, as usual, no one was disappointed.
